Chairman Sheryl Allen turned the Chairmanship to Rep. Holdaway.

Rep. Holdaway called the meeting to order at 2:12 p.m.

James Evans, citizen representing English as a Second Language, spoke to the need of grant money for teaching English to Heads of Households. He made a proposal for $250,000 to pass through DCED.

Judy Cohen, Guadalupe Schools Adult Education Program; and Marilyn Nunez, ESL Asian Association of Utah, also spoke to the need of funding for ESL grants.

Rep. Holdaway returned the Chairmanship to Rep. Allen.

Darin Underwood, Legislative Auditor General's Office, reviewed the report to the Legislature, A Performance Audit of Tourism Promotion Funding in Utah.

Chairman Allen recognized Lane Beattie, State Olympic Office. Mr. Beattie and Leo Memmott, Deputy Director State Olympic Office, gave an over-view of Olympic Travel Funding and answered Committee questions.

Chairman Allen encouraged cooperation between Olympic Travel and the Utah Travel Council for a unified effort.

There was a discussion by the Committee and Stan Eckersley, Fiscal Analyst, about the Supplemental list and the items that were for the current year and those for Fiscal Year 2002. The UTFC liquidation funds were also discussed.

There was not a quorum for voting.

Chairman Allen moved to adjourn. The meeting adjourned at 3:23 p.m.

Sen. David L. Gladwell, Co-Chair
